CALLING ALL MEN—IS YOUR NECK GIVING YOU FITS?

So I'm putting on my collared shirt getting ready for work and the top button won't close over this wattle of turkey skin that has appeared out of nowhere! Do I need a bigger collar...or do I need a smaller neck? The solution to the problem does not lie in some magic potion applied daily to the neck..nor is the solution a massage with a magic light or an ultrasonic vibrating stick . The solution is in a simple office procedure which will remove the turkey from your neck and permanently reclaim your lower facial and neck contour..yes it's a NECK LIFT.

Dr Wolin has developed an in office procedure to cure this neck problem. The results are permanent, and the patients are ecstatic with their new found youthful neck contours.

Many men are also unhappy about the size and shape of their nose not fitting their facial form. Dr Wolin has been doing rhinoplastic aesthetic surgery for over 30 years and has hundreds of happy patients who have had their nasal form refined.
